

PROCLAMATION

BY THE

Governor of the State of Texas

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

I disapprove, and am vetoing and filing with the Secretary of State House Bill 1366.

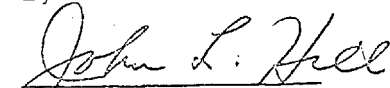

The purpose of this bill is to repeal House Bill 362 which was enacted during the recently completed session of the 60th Legislature and which has already gone into effect. House Bill 362 removed the need for an affidavit to accompany each audited complaint that is presented to the Comptroller of Public Accounts for the issuance of a warrant. That bill replaced the affidavit with a certificate of correctness. House Bill 362 amended and re-enacted Article 4357 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas to make this change.

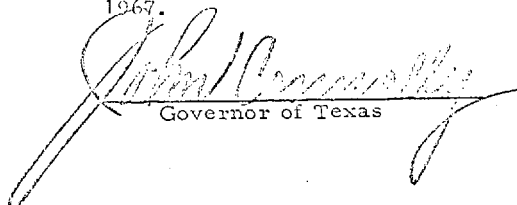

This present bill just repeals House Bill 362 and makes no provision for a procedure in its stead. While I am advised by the author of the bill that the intent was to repeal House Bill 362 and revert to Article 4357 as it existed prior to the enactment of House Bill 362, this bill does not accomplish this purpose. The legal result of the signing of this bill would be that the entire Article 4357 would be repealed and the Comptroller will have no guide lines as to the issuance of warrants. Since this is neither the intended nor a desirable result, I, therefore, veto this bill.

House Bill 1366 was received in the Governor's Office on May 29, 1967, less than 10 days prior to the adjournment of the Regular Session of the 60th Legislature, and in accordance with Article IV, Section 14 of the Constitution of Texas, the Bill, together with this Proclamation, is filed with the Secretary of State.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name officially and caused the seal of State to be affixed hereto at Austin this            day of June, 1967.

By the Governor:

Secretary of State

Governor of Texas
